

PHOTO-PLAY FEATURES.

Strand.
Today and tomorrow at the Strand Theater, Syd. Chaplin will be pictured in "The Submarine Pirate," a comedy film, and Harold Lockwood in "The Man in the Sombro." Tuesday and Wednesday, "The Submarine Pirate" and Harold Lockwood and May Allison pictured in "The Broken Cross"; Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Mary

WILLARD MACK.

Poland, pictured in "The Edge of the Abyss," supported by Willard Mack and others, and "The Knotted Cord," featuring Mignon Anderson.

Next week's photoplays include "Let Katy Do It," featuring Jane Grey and Tully Marshall; "Cello of the Sulu Seas," featuring Harold Lockwood and May Allison; "The Corner," with Willard Mack and George Fawcett; and "The Spirit of the Game," featuring Florence Labadie.

Crandall's.
"Thou Art the Man," a spectacular production, featuring Virginia Pearson and Joseph Kilgour, heads the list of attractions at Crandall's today and tomorrow. It is a story of Anglo-Indian life, written by George Cameron, and is founded on the Biblical story of Uriah. Tuesday and Wednesday, Molly McIntyre, late star of "Bunty Pulls the Strings," will be pictured in VIRGINIA PEARSON.

"Her Great Hour," Thursday and Friday, Alice Brady, in "The Ballet Girl." The story deals with La Sylva, a famous dancer, and her young daughter, in whose blood there exists an inherent craving for stage fame. Miss Brady is pictured in both roles.

Next week's photoplays include "The Reform Candidate," featuring the actor of "The Girl of the Golden West," Mabel Van Buren, Theodore Roberts and House Peters in "The Girl of the Golden West," the remainder of the week.

Next week's features are Paramount program successes, including Gaby
